APPLICATION FORM – NON-VOTING STUDENT MEMBER COMMUNITY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION

ELIGIBILITY

- Must be attending a secondary school
- Must reside in the County of Prince Edward

Community and Economic Development Commission (CEDC)

The CEDC is a municipal board comprised of business leaders and County Councillors which has been tasked with guiding the County's approach to Community & Economic Development through broader engagement with community stakeholders. The CEDC has tackled important community issues including affordable housing, workforce development, heritage preservation, youth retention, destination marketing and local education.

The youth seat on the CEDC was established to help keep the board in tune with the issues, challenges and barriers facing County youth while providing a conduit for continual feedback about CEDC priorities in the context of youth in The County.

The youth seat is a non-voting position but would be expected to attend and participate in monthly meetings. Eligible candidates are encouraged to fill out this application explaining why you are interested in serving in this important role.
